Lewis County: Open for Business

What is the Chamber of Commerce?

The Lewis County Chamber of Commerce is a voluntary, non-profit partnership of businesses and professional people working for community development and to improve the quality of life throughout Lewis County. The Chamber organizes the ideas, energy and finances of its members to accomplish collectively what no one can do individually.

Chamber Mission/Vision

The mission of the Lewis County Chamber of Commerce is to provide leadership and be a voice of the business community.

The vision is to:

- Enhance the quality of life;
- Support sustainable development that is socially, economically and environmentally viable;
- Promote and encourage private enterprise;
- Unify the direction of the business community; and
- Respond to our members.

Who runs the Chamber?

The Board of Directors governs Chamber operations and activities. The Board meets at 5:15 p.m. the fourth Thursday of each month at the George Morgan Thomas Home, 151 Third Street (corner of Third and Main) in Vanceburg.

Additionally, Membership Liaison Paula Franke (606-798-2553) is available for membership support and Chamber promotion.
